

WESTERLY

Coach Jack Gallagher issued the first call for baseball candidates at the West-ly High School Friday afternoon. About thirty aspirants met with the coach to talk over the possibilities for the coming season. The outlook is not especially bright, for there seems to be no pitcher that can fill the shoes of Barber, last year's star twirler. Maine, without doubt the best catcher in interscholastic circles, may be counted to ably hold down the receiving position, and Bowditch looks like the logical choice for the initial sock. Captain Grills will play his third year at the keystone position, and Lenihan, last year's shortstop, will again fill that position. The new corner will be a bona fide contention, and the rookie will also have a good chance to supplant last year's outer gardeners, which trio was far from a finished set of outfielders. It is planned to have the first outdoor practice March 7, immediately after the spring vacation.

At the business meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., held Thursday evening in Mechanics hall, Mrs. Katherine Shea, and Miss Mary McKeever were elected delegates to the state convention to be held in Pawtucket. At the conclusion of the meeting the members played whist and enjoyed a social hour. The prize winners were: Miss Mary McKeever, first prize; Miss Mae Lynch, second; Miss Theresa McMahon, consolation award. A light luncheon was served.

The W. S. Hisey company on Main street has announced that on and after March 5, the office and business of that concern will be operated Saturday instead of Sunday. The H. T. Kenyon company, proprietors of the H. T. Kenyon concern, conducted their business Sunday and closed Saturday since 1881.

A large audience attended the presentation of the comedy, The Sweet Family, Thursday evening in I. O. O. F. hall. The amateur actors were roundly applauded, and the performance was a decided success. The cast follows: Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. William I. Bamford; Melody Bellina, Mrs. J. J. Gardiner; Caroline Cordelia, Mrs. John Loring; Dorothy De-llah, Mrs. George Sharpe; Elizabeth Eliza, Miss Jean Grant; Frances Fedory, Mrs. Henry Barnes; Arminy Ann, Mrs. Stephen Smith; Gloria Gaidub, Mrs. P. F. Sherman.

Proceeding the comedy, a short musical programme was rendered consisting of piano selections by R. Bailey, quartet composed of Mr. Scott, Miss Rook, William Ople, John Hogg, also the Highland fling and sword dance by Genevieve Smith.

Due to the illness of Judge Oliver H. Williams, Clerk of the Court, Judge J. H. Williams presided at the regular session of the Third District court Friday morning. One new writ was entered, Harry Smith vs. Kate Rowe, an action of replevin. It being unanswered it was continued a week. All the other cases on the civil docket were also continued for a week.

The case of Joseph Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. Joseph Guarino, charged on two separate counts with carrying a concealed weapon and assault with a dangerous weapon, was continued until March 11. Attorney Walsh of Providence appeared for the defendant.

Charles W. Mullen, pianist at the Elven Opera house for the past several months, died at his home on 122 High street Friday morning. Mullen came to Westerly from New Britain, Conn., and was at one time a resident of Old Mystic. He is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Mary Holdredge Mullen, a brother, James L. Mullen, all of New Britain. The body will be taken to Pittsburgh, Mass., for burial.

A double alarm called out the members of the Pawtucket Fire department about 6 o'clock Friday to extinguish a chimney fire in the Union yard, on Liberty street. The alarm was rung in from Box 62, and when the alarm was sounded, many of the residents of the town thought that a big fire must be in progress, and a line of early risers appeared on Liberty street, only to find that chemical extinguishers had put out the flames before any damage could be done.

The members of Franklin lodge, No. 20, P. and A. M., will attend services at the Pawtucket Congregational church in a body Sunday night, Rev. F. A. MacDonald will deliver a sermon on George Washington, the Man and the Mason.

STONINGTON

Bowser brothers of Stonington have commenced the work of trimming the trees in the borough.

Borough hall building was broken into Tuesday evening in two places. A window on the west side of the building under the fire escape and leading to the apparatus room of Neptune Hose Co. was forced open and an entrance effected. One of the safety doors on one of the heaters was torn off and four pounds of steam was found on the boiler at 10 a. m. The janitor left things in order when he went home Tuesday evening. Nothing was missing, but the intruders evidently were on a warm place. There is a report that several men were ejected from the hose company room about 12 o'clock Tuesday night by an officer of the company. As a result of the tampering with the furnace in the building experts spent the greater part of Thursday in making an examination of it. There was a bad leak in one of the joints and many of the excessive pressure of steam opened some section.

The catching of fish has been a hard and uncertain business in this locality of late.

The meeting of the Boy Scout troop was held in the community building Friday evening.

W. Dean Fairbrother is home from Bristol for a visit of a few days with his parents.

Cuticura Soap is the favorite shaver among shavers.

the greatest MORAL LESSON in the world but

"one of the UNEXAMPLED WONDERS of the 20th century"

Over three hundred clergymen already have recommended this great story.

Scores of sermons have been preached on it, and more than one minister has said "IT IS THE GREATEST OF ALL SERMONS."

And now the exclusive Boston Herald, in a leading editorial, finds reason on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25th, to say: "No thoughtful person can sit through the play to its very end without concluding that he has been in contact with ONE OF THE UNEXAMPLED WONDERS OF THE 20th CENTURY."

Rev. Lincoln H. Caswell Pastor, Crawford Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, New York City.

"IT IS THE GREATEST MORAL LESSON IN THE WORLD! You have surpassed all words! Your picture has out-Heroded Herod—but spoken all spoken language and put a climax to all superlatives. Our ordines thus divines themselves at every pore, but 'Way Down East' is divinely ordained to speak its silent message to the myriads that throng the theatre. It is an eloquent sermon."

Rev. John T. Wilds Pastor, Seventh Presbyterian Church of Jesus Christ, 124 Broome Street, New York City.

"A perfect play, perfectly played and perfectly presented! I am truly grateful to the dear Lord that HE has so called you in your work that you are doing great good."

Rev. Howard Preston McHenry, Ph. D. Ministers' Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

"As a religious teacher I want to say I was profoundly impressed. It is a real preaching of the Gospel. It must succeed because it is true."

Rev. J. Henry Harms Lutheran Church of the Holy Communion, Philadelphia.

"It carries a great message of warning to the unwary, and of retribution for the guilty. If all motion pictures could be as wholesome as this one is, I can't see why the most scrupulous could object."

NOTE—Rev. Henry R. Rose, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, Newark, N. J., is preaching a series of sermons on "Way Down East," showing colored scenes from the big D. W. Griffith production. Rev. Lincoln H. Caswell, of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, New York City, has preached two sermons on "Way Down East," and shown to his congregation more than seventy scenes from the play.

THIS SPLENDID PRODUCTION WILL BE SHOWN AT THE DAVIS THEATRE, FOUR NIGHTS

STARTING TOMORROW EVENING, AT 7:30, AND TWICE DAILY ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, AT 2:00 AND 8:00 P. M.

MONTVILLE

The February meeting of the Woman's Missionary society was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Thomas H. Church, Friday afternoon. The exercises opened with the hymn I Love to Tell the Story and responsive scripture reading from the 19th Psalm. The report of the previous meeting was read by the secretary, Miss Susie Wood, and it was voted to give $5 to the China famine sufferers.

This being the day set apart for prayer for missions, it was observed and the following program was given: Reading, A Call to Prayer, by Mrs. T. H. Church, who also offered prayer; reading, America the Beautiful, Mrs. Ida Browning; prayer, Miss Wood; reading, The Brightest and Best Life, Miss Lyon; prayer, Mrs. Browning; reading, A Trust, Miss Wood; prayer, Mrs. Joseph Church and Mrs. Fred Hope; reading, The Famine in China and Jesus' Way, Mrs. Ray Woodmansee; piano solo, Whispering Hope, Mrs. Fred Church. After singing Blessed Assurance, the meeting closed with the Missal benediction. There were eight present and the offering was $12.00.

Deacon Edwin S. Henry spent Sunday in Hartford with his daughter, Mrs. George Sheppard.

For the first time in many years there was no Sunday morning service in the Union Baptist church. One loyal church member of the weaker sex braved the storm for a half mile walk, only to meet closed doors upon arriving.

Miss Nettie Gridley entertained the weekly whist club Monday evening. Miss Florence Chapman being unavoidably absent, Mrs. Frank Miner substituted for her and three tables were played. The favors were red, white and blue hatched.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Furber took first prize, each winning a box of stationery, while Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Chapel came the consolation awards, a face cloth and a doll. Miss Gridley served cake and ice cream. The club will meet next Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Chapel.

Cornelius E. Flaherty, business manager for the C. M. Robertson company, left Thursday for a two-week trip to Miami, Fla.

Week end guests at the Chapel household included Fred Sherman of East Lyme and son Lester of Monson, Mass. Thirteen were present at the Ladies' Aid society meeting which was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Stella Coen. The members were engaged with a variety of needlework. At the business session the report of the secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Harriet Furber, was given. The society voted to piece a quilt and Mrs. Thomas Watt and Mrs. Lillian Filer were appointed to get the blocks in readiness. Miss Coen served sandwiches, doughnuts, cake and cocoa. The collection was $14.40.

WEST KINGSTON

Mrs. Ida M. Kenyon with Master Everett Kenyon spent Saturday and Sunday with her son Amos and his family in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Frese spent Sunday with Providence relatives.

The snowstorm visited here and left lots of drifts. It required several men to shovel out the roads before traffic could be resumed. The mail from Unquaug did not get down in the morning, but Monday afternoon the mail came. Mrs. Simmons took the mail bag, walked to West Kingston, got the mail and walked back again, the distance being three miles. Good courage! The rural carrier did not get through until Wednesday.

No services were held in the church here Sunday on account of the snowstorm.

The girls of the Sunday school large enough to sew met with Mrs. L. M. Kenyon Friday evening and organized a sewing club, to be called Sunshine Sewing circle. The first work is piecing a quilt. Several women interested were present to help out the pieces.

Dr. Kenyon was a visitor in Westerly Wednesday.

Clarke Whitford of Exeter was a caller here recently.

Shippes of Kingston was here Wednesday.

MONTVILLE CENTER

Mrs. Frank Schofield has been suffering with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Mary Johnson was pleasantly surprised at her home last Friday afternoon by 10 of her children and grandchildren who came to celebrate her 84th birthday.

Mrs. Albert Fox, her eldest daughter, brought a large birthday cake, elaborately decorated. A general good time was enjoyed throughout the afternoon and refreshments were served.

Miss Jennie Glasbrenner of the S. N. E. T. office force in Norwich spent several days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glasbrenner.

The Ladies' Social union will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Schofield.

The Garden Freshness of "SALADA" TEA

is the symbol of its purity. Every cup demonstrates the genuine value of this wonderful tea field Wednesday afternoon of next week. At the Community house Monday night, moving pictures were shown as usual, after which games were played by the young people.

For a few days the telephone was the only means of communication in this rural locality; the R. F. D. carriers were unable to make their rounds until Thursday; but few pupils were able to get to school the early part of the week. Wednesday morning three of James Lathrop's children, one astride a mustang and the other two each on a horse, made the trip of several miles from their home over Raymond Hill, as the only means of travel through the beautiful snow. There was no service in the Congregational church Sunday. Rev. E. P. Ayer was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schofield and returned Wednesday to his duties in Hartford.
